

Film It! Protagonist sheet

1. Fill in the two tables below and watch your character start to come to life. We'll start with physical and other basic information. These are the surface traits. Sketch out these before going deeper to find out what makes your character tick.
2. Once you have filled out the table, see if you can write a short a paragraph about your character. Feel free to add any more information about your character not listed below.

Physical and basic information

Category	Description
Name
Age
Height (e.g short, tall)
Posture (e.g. slouchy, upright)
Hair (e.g. curly, straight, brown, pink)
Eyes (e.g. brown blue green)
Occupation (e.g. student, teacher, movie star)
Home life (e.g. only child, has siblings, parent/s)
Hobbies (e.g. playing video games, hiking, sports)
Favourite food (e.g. pizza)
Talents or abilities (e.g. good dancer, great at maths)
Temperament (e.g. happy, grumpy, nice, mean)
Unique identifying features (e.g. freckles, scar on their arm)

Beneath the surface character information:

Category	Description
What genre music/books/games do they like?
What is the character's relationship with their family members like?
Is your character independent or not? How so?
What is your character's greatest fear/ what are things they are afraid of?
How has your character's life changed during their lifetime?
How do they see the world?
Do they have a motto that they try and live by? What is it?
What is their most treasured possession? Why?
What is their most treasured memory? Why?
What's something that no one else knows about your character besides themselves?
What moment in their life is your character is most ashamed of?
What moment in their life is your character most proud of?
Add your own question:
Add your own question:
Add your own question:
Add your own question:	